UNIVERSITY FOR PEACE

Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Barbados, Belize, Benin, Bolivia, Burundi, Cape Verde, Cambodia, Chile, Colombia, Comoros, Congo, Costa Rica, Côte d'Ivoire, Cyprus, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Grenada, Guatemala, Guinea-Bissau, Guyana, Haiti, Honduras, Israel, Kyrgyzstan, Mongolia, Myanmar, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Republic of Korea, Republic of Moldova, Romania, Russian Federation, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Singapore, Solomon Islands, South Africa, Suriname, Togo, Trinidad and Tobago, Turkey and Uruguay: revised draft resolution

The General Assembly,

Recalling that, in its resolution 34/111 of 14 December 1979, it approved the idea of establishing the University for Peace as a specialized international centre for post-graduate studies, research and the dissemination of knowledge specifically aimed at training and education for peace and its universal promotion within the system of the United Nations University,

Recalling also that, in its resolution 35/55 of 5 December 1980, it approved the establishment of the University for Peace in conformity with the International Agreement for the Establishment of the University for Peace, 1/

Recalling further its resolutions 45/8 of 24 October 1990 and 46/11 of 24 October 1991, on the tenth anniversary of the University for Peace and the report of the Secretary-General on that anniversary, 2/ and its resolution 48/9

1/ See resolution 35/55, annex.

2/ A/46/580.

of 25 October 1993, in which it decided to include in the agenda of its fiftieth session the item entitled "University for Peace",

Recognizing that the University has suffered from financial limitations which have impeded the full development of the activities and programmes necessary for carrying out its important mandate,

Recognizing also the important and varied activities carried out by the University during the period 1993-1995, largely thanks to the financial contributions made by Canada, Costa Rica, the Netherlands and Spain and other contributions by foundations and non-governmental organizations,

Noting that, in 1991, the Secretary-General, with the assistance of the United Nations Development Programme, established a Trust Fund for Peace consisting of voluntary contributions in order to provide the University with the means necessary to extend its sphere of activity to the rest of the world and to take full advantage of its potential capacity for education, research and support of the United Nations and its mandate of promoting peace in the world,

Noting also that the University has placed special emphasis, in the context of the report of the Secretary-General entitled "An Agenda for Peace", 3/ on the area of conflict prevention, peace-keeping and peace-building and on the peaceful settlement of disputes,

Considering the importance of promoting an education for peace which will help to foster respect for the values inherent in peace and universal coexistence among human beings, such as respect for life, friendship and solidarity between peoples, the dignity and integrity of persons irrespective of their nationality, race, sex, religion or culture,

Taking into account the efforts being made by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization for the development and promotion of a new culture of peace,

Noting likewise the research activities for international peace and security being carried out by the United Nations University,

Recalling that Turkey acceded to the International Agreement for the Establishment of the University for Peace on 27 November 1995,

Recalling also that, in its resolution 46/11, it decided to include in the agenda of its forty-eighth session and biennially thereafter an item entitled "University for Peace",

1. Reiterates its appreciation to the Secretary-General for the establishment of the new Council of the University for Peace, which held its ninth regular meeting on 3 October 1994;

3/ A/47/277-S/25944; see Official Records of the Security Council, Forty-seventh Year, Supplement for April, May and June 1992, document S/24111.

2. Requests the Secretary-General to consider ways of strengthening cooperation between the United Nations and the University for Peace and to submit a report thereon to the General Assembly at its fifty-second session;

3. Invites Member States, non-governmental organizations and intergovernmental bodies as well as interested individuals and organizations, to contribute directly to the Trust Fund for Peace and to the budget of the University;

4. Invites Member States to accede to the International Agreement for the Establishment of the University for Peace, thereby demonstrating their support for a global peace studies institution whose mandate is the promotion of a global culture of peace;

5. Decides to include in the agenda of its fifty-second session the item entitled "University for Peace".
